General Supt. J. R. Phelan and Party of Officials Arrive In Cheyenne.

Surprise Promised to be Sprung Which Will Circumvent the Plans of Union Pacific.

(Special to the "News,") Cheyenne, Wyo., Feb. 16.-General Supt. J. R. Phelan of the Burlington, with a party of officials, arrived here last night over the Colorado & Southern, having come down from Alliance to inspect the Alliance-Guernsey, and the Cheyenne-Holdrege lines. The party were met here today by engineers who have been in the field north and west of Cheyenne, and this afternoon all will go to Omaha by special

The visit of General Supt. Phelan The visit of General Supt. Phelan and his assistants to Cheyenne at this time is significant because of the recent apparently authentic reports that the Borlington proposes to extend its the Borlington problems through Chey-Holdrege-Cheyenne line through Chey-enne and on across the Laramie plains to Salt Lake City, and also build a north and south line from Lyons, Colo., with the Francieconnection with the Frannie-Thermopolis line now under construc-

Supt. Phelan talked freely with your Supt. Phelan tarked treety with your correspondent and admitted that his company had plans for these extensions and connections. "What we wish to do." he said, "is to get out of Cheyene and extend on across the state intup the rich coal fields and copper set gold camps in the southern parand tap the rich coal fields and copper and gold camps in the southern portion of your state. We are now building southeast through the Big Horn Basin, and this line we wish to bring around into Cheyenne in some way."

Mr. Phelan spoke of the combinations that were formed a few years ogo prevent, and which did prevent for the time being, the extension of the alliance-Guernsey line westward from the place and he was free to admit that place, and he was free to admit that when that work was started it was the intention to build through to ras the intention to build through to salt Lake City, but that the Harriman interests got in the way. He said his people are perfectly familiar with the pass of the Union Pacific to build up the North Platte valley and thus seowe short cut and easy grade across the central part of the state, but that his company has a trump card up its siere which it will play shortly, and which will probably circumvent the plins of the Overland.
While he would not

he would not discuss the detalls of his company's plans, Mr. Pheadmitted that the Burlington will do extensive work in Wyoming this year, and he would not deny that the Denver-Lyons line will be extended to connection with the Frannie-Thermopolis line; that the Holdrege-Chevenne will be extended to a con-section therewith, and that the Guernsey line will also be extended to a con-nection with this north and south line from Denver to Billings,

DEATH OF PROMISING YOUTH,

The hand of death has visited the home of John P. and Mima McOmie of Murray and robbed them of their son Ruel V., after a lingering illness of nearly three years. The cause of his death was tuberculous peritonitis. He was fifteen years and two days old at the time of his death, which occurred Thursday evening shortly after 9 o'clock. He struggled manfully and hopefully with the grim reaper throughout his entire sickness. Every-thing that kind and loving hands could do for his recovery has been done and his sorrowing parents are left without a regret as to anything that might have been done. The remains may be viewed at the family residence on Vine street, Sunday morning, from 10 to 11:30. The funeral services will be held in the South Cottonwood ward house Sunday, Feb. 11, at 12:15. ELOPEMENT NINED IN THE BUD.

Matrimonial difficulties have practically wrecked two families at Murray, it is alleged, and the arrest of one of the parties, Harry Fitzsgerald, Friday evening, on a charge of eloping with the wife of B. Inglebretsen, the head of the second family, would make it appear that the statement is founded upon facts. Fitzgerald was arrested in Salt Lake a short time after he had stepped from a Smelter town car in company with Mrs. Inglebretsen, and within an hour the trate husband and Marshal Mauss entered the city just and cronfronted the runaways.

According to the statement of Mr. In-

Much against his wishes, Mr. Fitz-gerald was taken back to Murray; but whether it was because he feared to meet his wife or for the simple reason that the Salt Lake fall looked better to him than the Murray calaboose that he balked, is not known. But, in any event, he went, for Marshal Mauss was reinforced by Mr. Inglebretsen, and neither was in a mood to be trifled with. When arrested Fitzgerald had a wick-ed looking six-shooter in his pocket, and to make the charge stronger he was booked for carrying concealed weapons as well as with allenating Mrs. Inglebretsen's affections. choose one of known quality and excellence, like the ever pleas-
